

An artistic illustration featuring two hands, one in a reddish-pink hue and the other in a light orange tone, each holding a branch with green leaves and a small red flower. The hands are positioned on the left and right sides of the frame. In the center, the title 'Voices Against Trafficking' is written in a dark red, serif font. Below the title, the authors' names 'By: Pritha, Marjory, Elianny' are listed in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. The background is a light cream color with soft, abstract shapes in shades of pink and orange. A thin, orange, circular line encircles the text. On the far left, there are small, stylized wavy lines in yellow and green. The overall aesthetic is gentle and hopeful.

Human Trafficking

Human trafficking is currently on the top worldwide issues currently still going on. My group is essentially trying to not solve but bring the most awareness which in turn can put a possible end to this crucial issue. Around 6000,000 - 800,000 people (children, M/W) get trafficked in a year. The most targeted gender is women and these women are usually used as prostitutes for money. On top of that, children at the age of just weeks born or age of a kid in Pre-K are getting taken to be sold just for people's needs like used for forced marriage, sexual exploitation, and own satisfaction. These people getting trafficked are innocent people just getting used for disgusting reasons.

How does our site solve this problem?

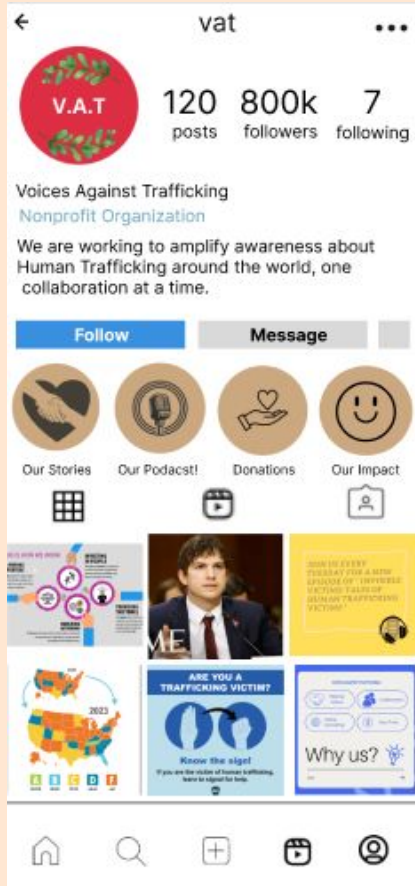

Our site works to solve this problem by collaborating with celebrities such as Ashton Kutcher and Angelina Jolie who have already made an impact to this problem by already creating programs that cater to or sharing their personal experiences with human trafficking. By sharing their personal experiences or explaining the organizations they are involved in, we hope to make other survivors comfortable with sharing their stories of involvement as well to help bring and end to this problem.

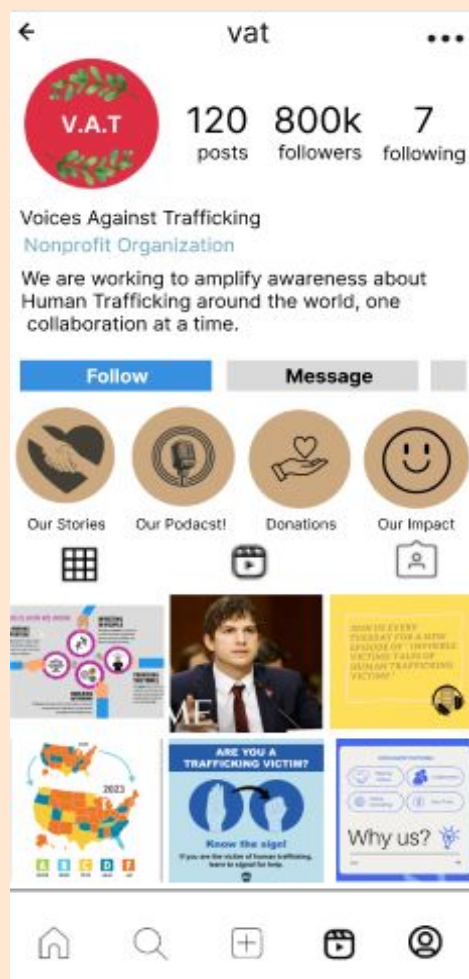

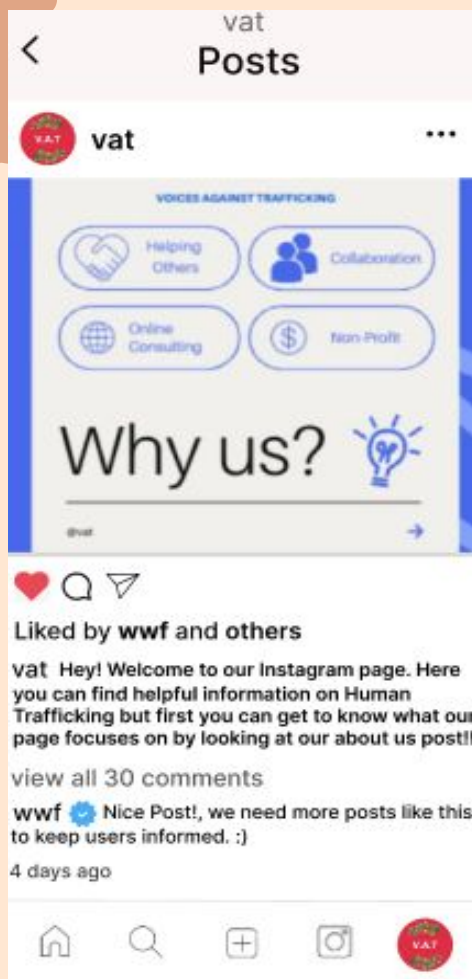

While also collaborating with celebrities to help amplify our platform, we also share statistics, helpful tips, and most importantly stories to help encourage viewers to be more educated about this problem. We hope that in this way they would become involved in our cause to help make Human Trafficking a problem of the past.

Challenges and Achievements our Team faced

We haven't faced much challenges with creating our instagram page thanks to the websites we used such as Canva, Figma, and also with inspiration from various non-profit organizations as well such as Polaris, Thorn, and WWF. Some accomplishments we've had would be finding the information we did which which we believe can help everyone. The statistics and tips we've found helped us to become more aware of our surroundings and find certain messages that can be an instance of trafficking.

The background is a light peach color with several abstract shapes. In the top left, there are two long, pointed orange shapes. In the top center, there is a large, rounded purple shape. In the bottom left, there is a cluster of orange and green shapes resembling a flower. In the bottom right, there are two wavy lines, one orange and one green. The title 'Wrap Up' is centered in a dark brown, serif font.

Wrap Up

In all we're trying to bring more awareness on this topic than there currently is. Human trafficking, again is a very hard issue to resolve because this happens all over the world every day but our goal is to reach this topic in all parts of the world. With the help of celebrities already spreading the awareness on their platforms and already taking action as well with the help we are going to do too we can definitely make this possible.
